WELCOME to the FMVA Studio Crawl

It is my distinct pleasure to welcome you to an event that celebrates the vibrant, creative, and diverse artistic community we are so proud of—the Studio Crawl.

Association Space above the Plains Art Museum Center for Creativity. And the Rourke Art Gallery and Museum is offering tours of their public access print studio and hosting several area artists in their courtyard outside.

A multitude of studios are inviting you to explore the very spaces where inspiration is born and art comes to life. Our artists have poured their hearts and souls into their work, and the FMVA Studio Crawl is a unique opportunity for you to witness the magic of their creative processes up close. It's an experience that bridges the gap between artists and art lovers. It's a chance to ask questions, to learn about the techniques and inspirations behind the works, and to engage with the artists in a meaningful way.

To our visitors, thank you for joining us again this year! Your support and enthusiasm make events like this possible and meaningful. I encourage you to take your time, explore each studio, and truly immerse yourself in the beauty and creativity that surrounds you.

I thank our sponsors, volunteers, and everyone who has worked tirelessly behind the scenes to make this event possible.

Along with new artists and returning artists, destinations added this year include the Indigenous Art Collaboration in the Indigenous

Enjoy the Studio Crawl!

FARGO-MOORHEAD VISUAL ARTISTS EVENTS

ARTS FOR THE HOLIDAYS

This juried event brings together leading and well-established fine artists with young and emerging artists—all from the Red River Valley. This one-day art event invites shoppers to visit historic downtown Fargo during the holiday season.

BIG ART EXHIBITION

It is the size of the show, not the size of the work, that makes this exhibit a BIG deal. Each spring, the FMVA gives members this opportunity to show their work to the public at West Acres mall.

CONSTRAINT EXHIBITION

The constraint for this year is 'What does it look like to you?' Artists' interpretations of that constraint will be displayed at Plains Art Museum. Next year, and every alternating year, will again be the Art Advocates Exhibition.

STUDIO CRAWL PREVIEW

This preview exhibition of the artists participating in the Studio Crawl is hosted by the Plains Art Museum each year. The art displayed is some of the freshest that Fargo has to offer. Visit to peruse the eclectic mix of art, pick up a Studio Crawl brochure, and plan your Studio Crawl weekend.

THANK YOU to our SPONSORS

It is through the community participation of these fine businesses and organizations that the Studio Crawl remains FREE to everyone.

FMVA MEMBER OF THE YEAR AWARD

ELLEN JEAN DIEDERICH

Ellen Jean Diederich brings sincerity and love to each of her paintings. Proud of her Midwest heritage, she says her rural and city backgrounds play a significant role in her choices of subject matters—landscapes, flowers, architecture, and domesticated animals.

Ellen is a nationally award-winning artist who creates neo-impressionistic paintings, primarily in watercolor and acrylic, in her studios in Fargo and in California. She has used her extensive talents to write and illustrate two award-winning children's books and her art book "Progressive Painting - Your Creative Journey." She's also a workshop instructor, juror, and she has one of the largest selections of boxed notecards available.

Ellen earned a BA in art education and a BFA in fine art, and she is an honored alumna of Minnesota State University-Moorhead. She has exhibited widely and has been featured in Fargo at the Plains Art Museum and the Underbrush Gallery, The Rourke Art Museum in Moorhead, The Capital Gallery in Bismarck, Jean Stephen Galleries in Minneapolis, and many more galleries in the Dakotas and Minnesota.

Ellen is one of just a few artists who have participated in the FMVA Studio Crawl from the beginning, and she's been an FMVA member for just as long.

We admire Ellen's contributions to our arts community, her steadfast commitment to the Fargo-Moorhead Visual Artists, and, most of all, her extraordinary talent. For these reasons and more, she has been selected as the FMVA's Member of the Year.

Stop by Ellen's studio to see her work during the Studio Crawl. You can sign up for her "Painting of the Week" blog and see more of Ellen's work at givinity.com.
